

AUDITOR'S OFFICE,

HOUSTON, 22nd February 1839.

THIS DAY came Henry McRae

and says the annexed instrument is just, true, and original; and the only one offered for liquidation: That he owes the Government nothing on his own account, or on account of any other person.

Suborn to before

J. W. Miller,
acting 2nd AUDITOR.